

INTER HOUSE DEBATE COMPETITION

“It is better to debate a question without settling it than to settle a question without debating it” - Joseph Joubert

Debate is one of the academic activities that give students creative room to express what they feel. The length and breadth of knowledge that they gain through this is simply unparalleled. The inter house debate competition for classes IX, X and XI was held on 26th September, 2017.

The event was held in the school auditorium and was graced with the presence of Ms. Arpna Gupta, Headmistress who welcomed the participants and conveyed her best wishes for the competition. The students of class IX and X were the enthusiastic audience to witness this exciting event.

The topic for the day was ‘Protesting gets you nowhere; it is better to compromise and adjust’. The competition was adjudged by school alumni, Rohit Ramanan and Tanisha Rajat. The teams were well prepared and undoubtedly convinced the audience of their beliefs and views. The participants, armed with statistics and data made their arguments more emphatic with their righteous facial expressions and voice modulation. They exhibited great oratory skill. The competition was an enthralling experience for the speakers as well as the audience.
