

REPORT

In collaboration with Ashoka University 'Changemaker Day' was organised at Delhi Public School, Gurgaon by the members of Ashoka Youth Venture for class VIII students on Tuesday, 3rd April, 2018. The objective of the event was to motivate the students to identify problems that exist in our society. They were encouraged to think of solutions and become a change maker.

The event began with a thought provoking street play by the students highlighting the importance of cleanliness. The Principal, Ms. Aditi Misra emphasized the important role, the future generation has to play as they are the changemakers of our country.

Mr. Pritish Bhavnani, a school alumnus, shared his experience as to what motivated him to be a part of the Changemaker campaign. Mr. Piyush Tewari, CEO of Save Life Foundation talked about his journey as a social entrepreneur. Mr. Pritish Ghosh, a DPS alumnus, Mr. Ajit Singh, a social entrepreneur, Mr. Ashish Kumar, a tech entrepreneur and Ms. Jayanthi Jaganath, a leadership coach took part in a panel discussion and talked about the importance of sensitizing the society towards issues that need a change. Another panel discussion was led by Pritish Bhavnani with panelists Madhav Mohan, Aditi Parekh and Sakshi Singh.

The event culminated with the announcement of the 'Changemaker Day Idea' contest in which the students gave their valuable inputs for bringing about changes in the society. It was an enriching experience for the students.

Headmistress, Middle School, Ms. Dipinder Kaur thanked the speakers for taking out the time to interact with the students and sharing the journey of their lives with them.

