

E-Comm Parv 2018 -Report

Kaizen, the Commerce and Economics Club of Delhi Public School, Gurgaon organized the Annual Inter School Commerce and Economics Festival on 4th August, 2018 in the school auditorium. The event witnessed a plethora of talented participants from 13 different schools across Delhi and NCR.

The Principal, Ms. Aditi Misra while welcoming the participating schools expressed the need for such a platform where the budding entrepreneurs can display their managerial and leadership skills. She emphasised that the purpose of the competition was to bring the best minds together to learn something from each other. She thanked Ms. Sapna Dhawan, Dean, Student Welfare and the organizing committee comprising of teachers and students for organizing a well-coordinated event.

She thanked the alumni, Ms. Akansha Arora, Mr. Aniruddh Seth, Mr. Yash Dhawan, Mr. Ritvik Mewari, Ms. Poorva Gupta, Ms. Preeti Sridhar, Ms. Simran Raswant, Ms. Ananya Singla, Ms. Yoshita Bajaj, Mr. Aditya Srivastava and Mr. Joy Badola for being the facilitators of various events.

Various interesting on site and online competitions were conducted as part of the fest. While INQUIZitive- Quiz competition and Bulls and Bears- Investing simulation game tested the participants' grey cells, events like CreativiTEE , Bolly-ad...ish and eMAGonomics brought their creativity to the table. Tell to Sell - Ad making competition and Treasure Trove kept the participants on their toes and kept the action alive. The judges lauded the efforts of the participants and appreciated their talent.

The Valedictory Ceremony commenced with a mesmerizing dance presentation depicting the biggest stock market crash of October 1987. The Rolling Trophy was awarded to Delhi Public School, Vasant Kunj. The event culminated by the vote of thanks proposed by the club presidents, Saloni Srivastava and Chirag Agrawal who thanked the judges, the participating schools, teachers and students without whose support and dedication the fest would not have been possible.