

Book Week Report

“Today a reader, tomorrow a leader”

Books not only define one's life but also broaden the mindset of the readers. Keeping this in mind, DPS Gurgaon organized a 'Book Week' in the month of November.

Several activities were conducted for the students of grade III, IV and V such as 'Badge Making', 'Stamp Designing' and 'Design a Cover Page' for the school magazine. As a part of the 'Guess Who am I?' activity, the students of grade IV dressed up as their favourite storybook characters. Students of grade V enacted as their favourite Hindi poet and poetesses and recited the poems written by them. Such activities gave an opportunity to the students to showcase their creativity and originality.

In addition, a Book Fair was also organized by Scholastic India for the students where array of books were at display. It was inaugurated by the Principal Ms. Aditi Misra. 'One Nation Reading Together' program was also conducted for the teachers and students during which the whole school stopped everything and indulged into reading for pleasure. It was truly a fun-filled week for the students.

The book week concluded with an interactive story telling session conducted by Ms. Vaijayanti Savant Tonpe, a famous writer and storyteller. She highlighted the importance of stories throughout this session. She also shared a story 'Daddy's Girl' written by her. The energy and enthusiasm of the session intrigued the students. Overall, the Book Week was a great success where the love for reading was fostered in the students.
