

Book Week Report

Junior School

'A book is a gift you can open again and again'

– Garrison Keillor

To celebrate the joy of reading books, Delhi Public School, Sector 45, Gurgaon observed the Book Week from 20th November to 25th November 2017.

The Book Week commenced with the inauguration of the Book Fair by the Principal, Ms. Aditi Misra. She encouraged the students to become avid readers and to explore these treasure houses of deep knowledge.

Various interesting activities and competitions related to books and reading were organised throughout the week. Designing the cover page for the school magazine- 'Junior Pallav', Bookmark Making, 'Picturize the Poem', Stamp Designing, Designing of Newspaper Cover Page and Book Jacket Making were some of the many activities in which the students participated and showcased their creative skills.

To inculcate a habit of reading among the young readers, One Nation Reading Together (ONRT) was observed wherein students of the Junior School expressed their solidarity for the nationwide movement.

The Book Week at DPS is one of our many little ways to broaden a child's world.

