

Assembly: Class X-F

“Sacha Sauda” or true business of Nanak which started as a small investment of 20 rupees, has today multiplied thousands of times over the centuries and communities across the world organize “Langars” with intent to share their earnings with the needy.

Societies grow great when old men plant trees whose shade they know they shall never sit in.

The school auditorium reverberated with skits, poems and quotations driving home an important learning to the Class X students. ‘Selflessness’ was the thought provoking theme of the assembly conducted by Class X-F on April 8th 2017. The Vice Principal ma’am Ms.Santvna Thadhani’s address extolled the efforts of the students. She stressed upon the importance of being selfless. The importance of student’s role in improving the society and imbibing values that shall lead to such a social system was emphasized.

The assembly was also an opportunity to give away the trophy and certificate to Chirag Tayal of X-A for his outstanding performance in the District Chess Championship securing the II position. Certificates and trophies were also given to the students for NIE School Anthem competition. The winners were Rishab Agarwal, Raghav Khanna, Pallavi Arora, Nitya Rakhe, Harshita Kamal, Yashika Malik, Vedant Shrivastava, Mehul Kumar Sinha, Sagarika Agarwal, Yash Mallik, Shreya Yadav and Tanushree Midha.

Santvna ma’am asked the students to perform well in their upcoming Mid-Term examinations and urged the students to work harder to achieve greater success. She motivated the students to live up to the expectations of their parents and the school. She also spoke about Shiksha Kendra, an initiative by Principal Ma’am, which has today grown to a full-fledged school, educating hundreds of students. Each student must uphold the school motto i.e. ‘Service before Self’.

An insight about opportunity for students towards Global Citizenship was shared by a team from Explorers. They introduced students about travel programs to Singapore and Indonesia. It concluded with a very interactive question and answer session which helped the students resolve their queries about the travel program.
