

Young Chef India Schools 2018

Six students of class XII from Delhi Public School, Gurgaon participated in the Regional Semi Final Round of 'Young Chef India Schools 2018'. The event was organized by the International Institute of Hotel Management (IIHM) in collaboration with the Ministry of Tourism, Government of India. It provided a platform for the budding Chefs from schools across the country to showcase their culinary talent. In the process these young chefs also learnt the nuances of the working techniques of the Hospitality and Culinary Industry. The 'Cook Off' took place on 4th April 2018 at the Indian Institute of Hotel Management (IIHM), Delhi Campus. Students from various schools across the National Capital Region participated and were asked to prepare a main course and an accompaniment using the available ingredients. The DPS Gurgaon team, which comprised of Saara Dhawan, Saloni Srivastava, Erika Brar, Hrillekha Ganguly, Ritin Aggarwal and Gauranshika Chawla prepared various dishes such as Biryani, assortments of Paneer and Kosha Mangsho. The participants were judged on concept, presentation, taste and texture.

Erika Brar was shortlisted for the Zonal Semi Final Round, which took place on 10th April, 2018 and qualified in the Top 10.

