

Book Amour 2017

Delhi Public School, Gurgaon participated in 'Book Amour 2017' organized by Ridge Valley School on 31st January, 2017 as part of their 4th annual literary fest. Many schools from Delhi and NCR participated in it.

The event commenced with the welcome of the participating schools and the eminent judges. Students from grade III to X actively participated and did exceedingly well in the various events held like Pictionary, Street Play, AD MAD, Declamation, Silver Screen, Twisting the Tale to name a few. They did the school proud by bringing home the Book Amour 2017 Championship Trophy as well as the trophies for the best performances at grade level III - IV and V -VI. The judges congratulated the participants and also made a special mention of the vigour and zeal with which the students of Delhi Public School, Gurgaon had showcased their talent.

