

BASANT PANCHAMI SPECIAL ASSEMBLY-1ST FEB,2017

The day of Basant Panchami is considered as the beginning of life. This day is the day of arrival of happiness. The season of Spring is the season of rebirth and renewal. Colourful flowers start blooming. The day of Basant Panchami is celebrated as the welcoming of colours and happiness. Basant Panchami is also celebrated as the birthday of Goddess Saraswati. A special assembly on Basant Panchami was presented by Jamuna house on 1st February, 2017 by children of classes III to V.

To invoke blessing of Goddess Saraswati, the deity of learning and creativity. Assembly began with a graceful Saraswati Vandana. The students enlightened the audience about how Basant Panchami is celebrated in various states of India through an engrossing skit.

The assembly drew to a close with a 'Devi Vandana' dance and a motivational speech by our Headmistress Ms Laveena Hemrajani. She emphasized on the importance of education in a student's life.
