

INTER HOUSE RANGOLI COMPETITION

'Mere colours can speak to the soul in a thousand different ways'

-Oscar Wilde

An Inter - House Rangoli Making Competition for students of classes IX, X and XI was held on 31st October 2018. Six students from each house participated in the competition. Students exhibited a lot of fervour as they put together their artistic, imaginative and creative skills to make bright and beautiful motifs using geometric shapes, deity impressions and floral designs. In this one hour long competition, the students tried to prove their talent in the best possible way. The adjudicators had to face a tough time in judging the competition. The judges for the event were school alumna Ms Sagarika Mukherjee and Ananta Chowdhury, art enthusiasts. The judgement parameters were based on originality, creativity, aesthetics and neatness of the Rangoli patterns. The first position was bagged by Jhelum House, closely followed by Jamuna and Ganges House in the second and third position.
