'All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy'

Keeping in mind, a trip to Delhi was organised by the school for the students of class IV where they had an opportunity to visit Gandhi Smriti, Nehru Planetarium and Akshardham temple.

After driving past Supreme Court, High Court, Secretariat Building, Parliament House and Rashtrapati Bhavan, the students first visited the Gandhi Smriti. Also known as Birla House, it is a museum dedicated to Mahatma Gandhi, the father of our nation. Students were made aware about various facts of Gandhiji's life. On their tour of the building, they saw a number of articles associated with Gandhiji's life where he lived in his last days.

Later, the students reached the Nehru Planetarium, which was earlier the official residence of Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru and now a museum in his memory. Students came across many interesting facts about different constellations and planets on their tour to the museum. The students also got a chance to discover the Solar system on the dome shaped screen.

Finally, the students reached the Akshardham temple, dedicated to Lord Swaminarayan. They went on an exciting boat ride which gave them a glimpse of the rich Indian heritage. Students were enchanted to see the beautiful architectures and sculptures. They enjoyed the hall of values and the movie.

After a day full of memorable moments, the students safely returned to the school in the evening. It was indeed a very enriching experience for all the students.
