

Press Release – GOONJ 2017

Delhi Public School, Gurgaon organized the Second Annual Inter-School Cultural Fest GOONJ 2017 on 11th August '17. The Principal, Ms. Aditi Misra in her inaugural address welcomed the participating schools who had come together to share the fine nuances of life through music, dance, art, theatre and photography. She called the amalgamation of performing arts as 'life of our lives'. She further stated that the beauty of performing arts brings exuberance to the performer as well as to the viewer.

The panel of judges constituted of eminent personalities and expert alumni from the respective fields. The criteria of judgment was originality, aesthetic sense, creativity and overall presentation.

The students competed in four on site events based on the theme of Navaras. The event of performing arts 'Abhivyakti' was judged by the alumni team- Ms. Shobhna Jha, Ms. Navya Agarwal and Mr. Yuvraj Geet Chopra. The event of painting and mixed art sculptor 'Lavanya' was adjudged by renowned pottery artist Ms. Rekha Bajpe and alumnus Ms. Virnda Agarwal. Dr. Danish Iqbal a well-known theatre personality along with alumnus Vedang Sharma judged the event of street play- 'Yuvadhwani'. 'Drishya' the event of photography was judged by Mr. Tushar Joneja, Film Director with Ramesh Sippy Entertainment and Alumnus Aditya Srivastava

DPS Gurgaon being the host school only participated in the events. The Rolling Trophy was awarded to DPS Vasant Kunj. The event partner of the fest was Pitamber Rising Sun Publishers.

The fest concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by Tanvi Singh, student member of the organizing committee

