

BAISAKHI

A special assembly was presented by the students of Ravi House on 13th April 2017. The students spoke about the significance of the great harvest festival, Baisakhi. It was on this day in 1699 that Guru Gobind Singh - the revered Tenth Guru of Sikhs laid the foundation of Khalsa Panth. It is also celebrated as Sikhs' New Year.

The assembly started with the school choir singing a mellifluous song. The students presented a beautiful skit, showing how this festival is celebrated in different states under different names. A beautiful dance, by the students in colourful attires left everybody mesmerized. The Headmistress, Ms. Laveena Hemrajani addressed the students and emphasised on how the regional celebrations portray the unity of people of India in spite of social, cultural and linguistic differences.

The assembly ended with the members of the Senior Council, PranavAgarwal, the Head Boy and MahikaAgarwal, the President reiterating the historical significance of Baisakhi and the moral values learnt through this festival. They stressed upon unity in diversity and how food should not be wasted as every morsel counts.

