TEDx-PRESS RELEASE

DPS Gurgaon initiated a series of talks in the event TEDx Youth@DPS Gurgaon on 7th October,2017 which showcased short talks that were idea focussed and covered a wide range of subjects to foster learning and inspire the young attendees.

The school principal, Ms. Aditi Misra welcomed and extended her heartfelt gratitude to the speakers for gracing the occasion. She said that she took pride in her students who worked tirelessly to make the event a resounding success. She further said that she believed that the event with such gamut of speakers would be as fulfilling to experience as it had been to build.

Celebrated speakers like Professor M.K Pandit, Dean, Faculty of Science, University of Delhi, Mr Vicky Roy, a seasoned award winning International Photographer, Mr. Sailesh Mishra, a social entrepreneur, Ms. Nidhi Kamath and Ms. Keya Vaswani, documentary film directors working on the art and craft of India, Ms. Nisha Singh, Advisor to the Deputy Chief Minister, Ms. Poonam Bagai, founder of CanKids..KidsCan, a National Society for Change, for childhood cancer in the country, India's leading psychological illusionist, Mr. Karan Singh Magic, Mr. Abhilash Salimath, a young entrepreneur working for the development of the country's rural area and Ms. Upasana Makati, youth editor of India's first braille magazine came forth to talk about their passionate journeys and their innovative ideas for the prevailing societal issues. The school alumni and youth leaders of tomorrow, Mr. Karthik Hariharan and Ms. Simran Rawat also shared their views on different topics inspiring the attendees to give back to the society.

Discussions and debates were generated on many topics motivating the attendees that they too could bring a change in the country if they were perseverant and determined. TED talk videos were also shown during the event, further enriching the experience of one and all. This TEDx talk was one of a kind and the attendees and the speakers left with an unfathomable experience, the event had presented to them.