

LOHRI SPECIAL ASSEMBLY REPORT

The chill of winter is over,

Spring is not far away.

Happy Lohri!

Lohri is an extremely popular festival celebrated in the north of India. It is a harvest festival which also marks the end of chilling winter cold.

The children of Ganges House Junior school, presented an extravagant show of colour and festivity on the occasion of Lohri. The assembly enlightened everyone about the legend behind Lohri, the way it is celebrated in North India and its significance. The symbolic bonfire was shown and distribution of prasad was also portrayed. After which the children dazzled the stage with a beautiful performance of bhangra and giddha on traditional folk songs of Punjab.

The assembly spread the euphoria of Lohri among the audience and left them spellbound.
