

Master Chef of DPS

“The art of cooking is when you mix craftsmanship with creativity.”

A unique opportunity to showcase their culinary skills was presented to the teachers of Delhi Public School, Sec 45, Gurgaon when they participated in the the 23rd International Food Festival organized by IIM Teacher Chef India, 2017. The competition was contested by teacher chefs of various other schools of NCR. Teacher chefs from our school accepted the challenge with zeal and gusto.

Ms. Navita Banerjee of the Junior Wing won the second runner up position in the competition on the 16th February 2018. The impressive flavors, balance in taste and innovativeness of her dishes were a culinary delight and won over the jury members. She was awarded a cash prize of Rs. 15000.
