

Assembly: Class IX A [2017-2018]

DON'T LET YOUR FEAR OF FAILING WIN OVER THE JOY OF PARTICIPATING.
PARTICIPATION IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN FEAR OF FAILURE....

The school morning assembly conducted by the students of class IX A on 11th July 2017 advocated a highly motivational theme that 'Participation is more important than winning'. The Head Mistress Senior School, Ms. Arpna Gupta presided over with the Morning Prayer. Students began the presentation with two inspiring thoughts both in English and French, followed by a short skit exhibiting the true spirit of participation. Winning is important but participation is way more important than winning was the message conveyed. The performance of the students was well praised and applauded by one and all. Head Mistress ma'am congratulated the students of class IX A for their fabulous presentation and sincere efforts.

Last but not the least, three students Param Kapur, Harsh Sahay and Kavya Banerjee of class X E were given certificates for participating in the Kaali Tales Story Writing Competition 2016-17 organised by The National Law School of India, Bangalore. The assembly concluded on a very joyous n satisfactory note.
