

Class II-Let's Be Inquisitive

Let's Be Inquisitive - a Show and Tell Competition based upon science experiments explaining simple science facts was organized on two consecutive days to celebrate the science week. Children showcased interesting, inquisitive experiments and participated enthusiastically with a keen desire to learn the wonders of science.