

DHAROHAR 2018: Report

Dharohar, the Social Science club of Delhi Public School Gurgaon, presented the third edition of the Annual Festival with the theme 'Enchanting Medieval India' on Saturday, 18th August 2018. The Festival was graced by the presence of the Principal Ms. Aditi Misra and Mr. Ajay Rajpal, the Guest for the event Showcase -2018.

The Principal, Ms. Aditi Misra inaugurated the event with the traditional lamp-lighting along with Mr. Ajay Rajpal. She addressed the gathering and shared with students the true essence of Dharohar. She focused on the need to connect and protect our heritage and be true to our legacy and take it forward with responsibility and care.

The event saw an array of activities highlighting the achievements of the Medieval Era. They were judged by a panel of enthusiastic, learned and motivated alumni: Anoushka Sur, Ananya Singhla, Simran Kaur Saini, Ahana Ray, Aditya Srivastava, Aryan Dhingra and Aniruddh Seth. The judges congratulated the participants and the Dharohar Presidents, Aksh Bhutani and Shradha Packiarajan for putting-up a great show.

Ramp Talk, the first event, was a tribute to the medieval Indian costume and an acknowledgment of its adaptation in the contemporary fashion showcased by the students. It was followed by QueSST, the quiz on the history of the medieval era. It tested the familiarization of the students with the facts and facets of the time period.

GazeSST, the historical newspaper on medieval rulers showcased the creativity of the students along with Through the Lens which was an online movie-making event on the theme 'Know your city and its vicinity'. Lastly, the event Hunar in which the students made bookmarks and cards using the various art-forms of medieval era, thus reviving and re-inventing them.

The valedictory ceremony saw the felicitation of the winners of various activities. The event culminated by the vote of thanks proposed by the club secretaries, Sunidhi Gupta and Shachika Mittal.

