Report – Poetry Recitation

‘Poetry is when an emotion has found its thought, the thought has found words.’

- Robert Frost

Poetry recitation activity for class VI was organized on 18th July, 2017 in their respective classes. Children participated enthusiastically in the activity. They recited poems in groups, with proper expressions and intonations.