

Infant-Transport Park

A 'Transport Park' was set-up in the school lawns to help the children learn about the various modes of transport. The little ones enthusiastically went around the park, looking at the beautifully displayed modes of transport. They were shown different traffic signs and road crossings. The traffic lights and their meanings were explained with the help of a model. The children enjoyed learning about transport in a fun-filled way.