

TGELF WOLF DOG WORKSHOP

The Wolf Dog Workshop was held at APJ School, Saket, New Delhi on 22nd Aug 2015 and was conducted by Ms. Sharmishtha Gupta. Ms Geetu Khanna and Ms Ruchi Jain attended this workshop.

The objective of the workshop was to develop good story writing and storytelling skills in children from a very young age. It also stressed on introducing animal characters in stories to make children realize the bond and brotherhood which existed in ancient times between humans and animals. The workshop aimed at strengthening the power of spoken words and the strong connections that can be created between speaker and listener. Story writing gives an opportunity to students to value their creative contributions in the classrooms. It also helps strengthen students' vocabulary proficiency.

The workshop was an enriching experience which stressed on providing an opportunity to develop students' academic and character building skills using a fun and interactive approach.
