

WORKSHOP REPORT

An interactive play, 'Soojh Boojh Ke Kisse' was presented on 26th August'15 by twelve student-artistes of the troupe, Sanskar Rang Toli (Theatre in Education-TIE) from the National School of Drama. The play was directed by Mr.Bansi Kaul .

The group performed curriculum based and participatory series of skits specially designed and prepared for the children of Junior and Middle Wings of Delhi Public School, Gurgaon. The objective of the series was to encourage children to raise questions and make informed choices. The student-artistes were dressed in colourful costumes and used various props to present the stories. Each tale depicted the protagonist in different situations, and through his view point, life-lessons were unravelled. The tales were humorous, philosophical and thought provoking.

There were two shows for the students of Classes V and VI. It was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by all.

