

Compiled Report of Inter House Competitions

In pursuit of the overall development of each and every child, the Junior wing of DPS Gurgaon, Sector 45 witnessed a plethora of activities such as the Inter House Just A Minute Competition(JAM), Quiz Competition and Cooking Without Fire Competition during the month of September .

The JAM Competition provided the students a platform to express themselves and exhibit their knowledge and confidence which kept the audience captivated throughout the presentation. All the participants performed to the best of their ability and were encouraged and supported by the audience. The Quiz Competition was a test of the information acquired by the students along with their general awareness. The quick responses to the questions posed by the quiz master indicated that the students had left no stone unturned to prepare well and ensure that their house colour shines brightly. The enthusiasm of the team members of each house was well complemented by the energy of the spectators who motivated their house members at every step. The Cooking Without Fire Competition was truly a reflection of the hard work put in by the teachers and students who had done a lot of research to bring out the essence of the culture of each country that they depicted, not only through the recipes but also with their displays. The judges were mesmerized at the sight of the little chefs looking resplendent in their costumes.

All the competitions were an endeavour to generate a zeal for learning new things amongst the students and was surely an experience to be cherished by one and all. The competitions ended with prize distribution and an appreciation for all participants by the judges.
