

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL, GURGAON

There is nothing to lose, we either win or we learn!

A team of four students of Class V from Delhi Public School, Gurgaon participated in Poster Making Competition organized by ITIHAAS (Indian Tradition and Heritage Society) in collaboration with the Archeological Survey of India at Purana Quila, New Delhi on 19th November 2018.

The students secured 2nd position in the competition. The topic given to the team was “Colours of Diversity” which was thoughtfully depicted by them showcasing their creativity and imagination with vibrant colours.
