

STATES DAY – My Colourful India

“Peace is not unity in similarity but unity in diversity, in the comparison and conciliation of differences- Mikhail Gorbachev”

Students of Delhi Public School, Gurgaon, Class III presented a cultural extravaganza ‘My Colourful India’ on 25th October 2018. The presentation brilliantly showcased the varied cultures of India which blend together beautifully to give India its unique place in the world.

Dressed in traditional attire, children extended a warm welcome to the parents as they entered the classroom. The show began with a short introduction followed by a scintillating dance depicting our country’s varied culture. The narrators left everybody mesmerized by sharing interesting facts about the unique and distinctive features of the five zones of India. The show concluded with the mellifluous choir singing the song ‘Mile Sur Mera Tumhara’.

Both the parents and the children were given a feel of the authentic flavours of Indian cuisine aptly called the ‘Taste of India’ which was served in artistic boxes designed by our budding artists.

The spirit of unity and knowledge about the rich heritage in the young ones left an everlasting impression on the audience.
