

REPORT ON SAGA OF INDEPENDENCE

“Freedom is the open window through which pours the sunlight of the human spirit and human dignity.”

The Saga of Independence, the annual event of class IV, was organised by Delhi Public School on 15th August 2020. The event was live streamed on YouTube thus proving that creativity and talent cannot be restricted by any obstacles. The students participated with full vim and vigour. The Saga commenced with the enlightening words of the Director Principal, Ms. Aditi Misra wishing everyone a very happy independence day. In her address, she urged all to be grateful for the things God has bestowed us with in these unprecedented times. She sent out a strong message of positivity by requesting all to accept what comes our way and making the most of it. Urging everyone to embrace sustainability and minimalism, she requested all to make it a way of life. This was followed by a soulful medley of patriotic songs presented by the school choir which filled all hearts with the spirit of love for motherland and respect for its diverse cultures.

The Saga of Independence unfolded the journey of our independence. The students beautifully dramatized the strength and resilience of our freedom fighters who fought selflessly to free our country. The drama commenced with the portrayal of effervescent personalities such as Mangal Pandey, Rani Lakshmi Bai, Bipin Chandra Pal to name a few. The event picked up the pulse when the enthusiastic actors played the role of Mahatma Gandhi, Subhash Chandra Bose, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru to perfection. The students of class IV astounded the audience with their dynamic performances. They aptly portrayed the passion and the sentiment of these national heroes who were ready to bear hardships inflicted on them for their motherland. It was a pleasure to see the young actors put their heart and soul into their characters. Their riveting performances were a treat to watch. The Saga of Independence was not only about reminiscing our country's glorious struggle but also, about paying tribute to the armed forces of our country who are guarding the borders of our country. The students also showed their gratitude and indebtedness towards all the frontline warriors who are working tirelessly round the clock to protect us from the pandemic. These unsung heroes are the epitome of heroism, dedication and selflessness.

The Saga of Independence was followed by the prize distribution ceremony which was also held online for Class III for the academic session 2019-20. The energy-packed dance performance of the students kept the momentum of the event going.

The event culminated with the vote of thanks proposed by the Headmistress, Ms. Laveena Hemrajani. She thanked the parents for their unwavering support and cooperation not only throughout the academic journey but also during these challenging times. She praised the students for their resilience in the face of all the adversity. She also encouraged them to uphold the honour and integrity of our nation as they are the future of our country.
