These modules have made teaching of important life skills easier to the students. It has helped teachers during AIL fest where students had to work as a team.

tGELF REPORT: Class VII

The tGELF team conducted a meeting with class VII class teachers and the reps to get a feedback on the various modules they shared with the students over the last academic year 2020-21.

Some of the suggestions and the feedback shared by the teachers are:

- The content shared is very good and age appropriate.
- The module can be broken down into capsules and shared with the students.
- There should be more videos and animated films to build interest.
- The teachers did not have any information about students' participation and level of interest. So, if the responses could be shared with the teachers, it would enable them to give more valuable feedback.

Overall, the session was short, crisp and well received.
