Language Week Report

“Language is the blood of the soul into which thoughts run and out of which they grow.”

‘Language Week’ for the students of classes VI-XII was held from 20-25 July 2020.

Various activities were conducted during the week. The students, keen to express their speaking capabilities and creativity, participated enthusiastically.

For the middle school, various activities such as, ‘Best out of Waste’, ‘From my Kitchen’, ‘My Home Adventures’, were conducted.

For senior students of class IX-XII:

- Students expressed their artistic talent by taking part in radio talk shows, jingle competition and enactment of Panchatantra tales - I am an RJ/VJ, Bring out my Actor, My views matter, Tales and fables – Panchatantra and Fables de la Fontaine!!

Details of the Activities
