

Assembly Report

Delhi Public School , Gurgaon

Striving for success without hard work is like trying to harvest where you haven't planted.

As the session comes to an end and final term exams draw near, a special assembly based on the theme, 'All the Best' was conducted in the school auditorium for the students of classes VI and VII, to inspire and encourage them.

In the presence the Headmistress of the Middle School, Ms Shalini Arora, the assembly began with prayer which was followed by a motivating song presented by the choir. The auditorium echoed with excitement as everyone sang 'Hall of Fame' with the choir children.

The 'Thought for the day' and news from around the world was followed by a presentation on useful tips and techniques to be kept in mind while preparing for exams. Valuable inputs were shared to help the students plan their studies and achieve more in less time. Thereafter, a self-composed poem with the title, 'Exams are Here' was recited.

The students beamed with confidence as the Headmistress in her address encouraged them to study hard and do their best. She assured the students that their sincerity and hard work would yield excellent results. She advised the students to prepare physically, emotionally, intellectually and spiritually for taking the exams and not be tense or nervous.

She further advised the students to be extremely conscious about their health. A presentation related to Coronavirus was shown and she urged the students to follow good hand hygiene, maintain coughing and sneezing etiquette and eat nutritious and well-cooked food. The assembly concluded with heartfelt wishes from the Headmistress to prepare for and succeed in the exams.
