Students of DPS, Sector 45, Gurugram Present Street Play

The students of Delhi Public School, Sector-45, Gurugram, presented an animated street play themed 'One for All and All for One' inside the school premises. As a prelude to the show, the students presented a prayer and a theme-based song. Through their dramatic dialogue delivery, the students emphasized on the importance of togetherness to create a society built on respect, trust, sharing, caring and empathy. Weaving instances from everyday life into their enactment, they also portrayed that all work is worthy of respect and appreciation. The young actors engaged their audience in a lively and vibrant way while sending across impactful messages.
