Delhi Public School, Sector 45, Gurugram, conducted the virtual investiture ceremony of the vice student council 2021-22 for Class II. The newly appointed council members were bestowed with the responsibility of leading the school from the front. The guests of honour for the function were school alumni Kopal Raje and Joy Badola who advised the council members to uphold the school motto 'Service Before Self', be empathetic leaders and work with honesty and dedication.

After the rendition of the national song and the school anthem, school director-principal Aditi Misra addressed the council members and congratulated them. She advised the student leaders to work as a team, be critical thinkers, and most importantly, have impeccable communication skills. She urged them to have courage and conviction to chart out their dreams, reach new milestones, uphold the glory of the positions given to them and lead by example.

It was followed by a short cultural programme, which comprised video presentations of an enthralling inspirational song and a beautiful dance show, depicting how with power of knowledge man can initiate new beginnings, create ideas and bring about positive changes in society.

The names of 14 talented and aspiring writers of the school, whose works were published by Scholastic Quill Club Writers, were announced. The event also witnessed announcement of seven graphic novels designed and developed by the school in collaboration with the CBSE.

The leadership team administered the oath of allegiance to the office-bearers and invested them with duties and responsibilities. It was a proud moment for the parents to see their children's portfolios being displayed on screen with photographs.

The event culminated with a vote of thanks proposed by vice head girl Anya Kapoor and student council vice-president Shiven Chambial.

The elected council members were urged to fulfil their duties with dedication
