Delhi Public School, Gurgaon, celebrates 21st Founder's Day

Delhi Public School (DPS), Sector 45, Gurgaon, celebrated its 21st Founder's Day with enthusiasm. The chief guest for the event was host school managing committee member Vrinda Sarup while DPS Indirapuram founder principal Meeta Rai was the guest of honour.

Sarup urged the parents to inculcate the reading habit among the children. Sarup also said education has evolved for the better over time and now the children have limitless options to explore rather than following the conventional path of one particular stream. Rai spoke about the amazing growth of DPS Gurgaon over the past 21 years. On the second day of the event, the guests and patrons of the school, Ravi Jaipuria and pro-vice chairperson Devyani Jaipuria were welcomed for the function with the traditional lamp lighting and a stuti, presented by the students of Shiksha Kendra, an afternoon school run by the host school for the marginalised section of society.

The school choir presented a motivational song titled Chhu Lenge Aasmaan. Thereafter Dhara Jaipuria released an e-brochure which encapsulated the making of Abhimanyu-Today. Around 200 students participated in that dance with enthusiasm. Jaipuria lauded Misra's leadership for giving identity to the school and taking it to the pinnacle of success through her tireless striving. The event ended with a vote of thanks by the student council head.
