

Founder's Day celebration at DPS

Delhi Public School, Sec 45, Gurgaon celebrated its 21st Founder's Day on October 18 and 19 with zest and zeal. The chief guest and member of the managing committee, DPS Gurgaon, Vrinda Sarup and the guest of honour and founder principal, DPS Indirapuram, Meeta Rai graced the occasion on October 18. Vrinda Sarup urged parents to encourage the reading habit among children. She also said that education has evolved for the better over time and now children have limitless options to explore rather than following the conventional path of one particular stream. Meeta Rai spoke about amazing growth of DPS Gurgaon over the past 21 years in her address.

On October 19, the chief guests and patrons of the school, Ravi Jaipuria and pro-vice chairperson, Devyani Jaipuria were welcomed for the function with the traditional lamp lighting and a stuti, presented by the students of Shiksha Kendra-an afternoon school run by DPS Gurgaon, for the marginalised section of society.

Thereafter the brochure was released by Dhara Jaipuria, which encapsulated the making of 'Abhimanyu-Today'.

The dance drama, ideated and conceptualised by Director Principal, DPS Gurgaon, Aditi Misra, called 'Abhimanyu-Today' was in-

The event commenced with the primary wing students invoking the blessings of Lord Ganesha with their mellifluous shloka chanting, 'Vakratundamahakaya'. A fusion-style motivational song, 'Chhu lenge aasmaan' was also presented by the school choir motivating all to soar high in the limitless sky.

spired by the Mahabharata wherein Abhimanyu could not manoeuvre through the 'chakravyuh'. The presentation showcased the plight of the students of today and the insecurities they go through in today's day and age. The event culminated with the vote of thanks proposed by the Head Student Council.
