

Delhi Public School, Sector 45, Gurugram, Hosts Karneval Der Kuenste

Delhi Public School, Sector 45, Gurugram, in collaboration with Goethe Institut, Max Mueller Bhavan, New Delhi, hosted Karneval der Kuenste 2025, the Interschool German Language Festival. 32 schools and more than 400 German learners from Delhi NCR participated in the festival, focussing on Germany's diversity and inclusivity. The Director Principal Aditi Misra in her welcome address, appreciated the role of Art Integrated Learning introduced by CBSE, to have brought more fun to the classroom and advised the students to explore art, music, dance and theatre. An orchestra presentation by the students of classes IV and V and a piano recital by Andreas König, piano Lecturer and Supervisor at the Delhi Music Society, was a musical treat to the ears. Puneet Kaur, Project Director, Goethe Institut, Max Mueller Bhavan, New Delhi, in her address, encouraged the students to enrich themselves by learning a new language and thanked the principal for organising the event. The winners were awarded during the valedictory ceremony. The vote of thanks was proposed by the Project Manager, Goethe Institut, Max Mueller Bhavan, New Delhi, Matthias Dünnwald, who thanked everyone for making the 'karneval' a grand success.
