

DPS, Ggm, celebrates carnival with CanKids

Delhi Public School, Sector 45, Gurgaon, celebrated its annual carnival with the children of CanKids KidsCan, an NGO that is dedicatedly working in the field of childhood cancer care.

Before the pandemic, every year these bravehearts from Delhi-NCR, were invited to spend a day of fun and frolic with the DPS family. This year the celebration was held virtually, in the form of a video. The script for the video was written, acted and directed by the students of Class II, which was a melting pot of Bollywood dances, quiz and theatre. Cheers and happiness were spread with popular cartoons like Doraemon, Chhotta Bheem, Shinchon and Motu Patlu. The message of hope and blossoming life echoed through the presentation. In her address, director principal Aditi Misra lauded the spirit of children battling cancer. She called them real superheroes and urged them to be positive as each day brings new healing.

The virtual celebration organised by the CanKids Foundation saw performances by KidsCan Konnect and the Path Pradarshak Parivarik Sahayak Group (P3SG). The cancer survivors shared their experiences after a cyclothon event. A church priest prayed for the good health and well-being of the children attending the same. The video presented by DPS Gurgaon added zeal to the festive cheers through a melodious rendition, enthralling dance movements and hilarious theatre performance.
