Delhi Public School, Gurgaon, hosts 3rd edition of TEDx DPS Gurgaon Youth

Delhi Public School, Sector 45, Gurgaon, hosted the third edition of TEDx DPS Gurgaon Youth with enthusiasm. The event was attended by DPS Gurgaon pro-vice chairperson Devyani Jaipuria.

The event featured inspiring speakers who shared their remarkable journeys. Laksharaj Singh Mewar of Udaipur laid emphasis on self-compassion and positive mindset.

International beauty pageant winner Naaz Joshi shared her optimistic views, highlighting her resilience in the face of challenges. Chef Puneet Sikand's inspirational story showcased his determination in realizing his dream of owning a successful restaurant. This was followed by the address of school's director-principal Aditi Misra, who said she believed that the event was not constrained by the boundaries of a specific theme but was driven by the collective pursuit of positive insight.

Ketna Mehta's story demonstrated her indomitable spirit in pursuing a successful career despite facing adversity. Kanika Ahuja's commitment to sustainability through repurposing discarded materials left the audience inspired. Abhishek Gupta emphasised empathy and equal opportunities in his speech. Vineet Panchhi evoked introspection through poetic verses and their profound impact in igniting introspection. Music director Dhruv Dhalla's insightful speech and performance highlighted the essence of creativity. In addition, student speakers Sneha Singla and Mehak Kaur shared their inspiring stories too.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by TEDx Student Presidents Ananya Pareek and Charvi Bansal, who acknowledged the power of collective efforts and ideas.
