

SPIC MACAY Gurgaon organises series of concerts at various schools across city with all enthusiasm

With the sole aim of reaching out to the students and giving them an insight into India's vast cultural heritage, the Society for the Promotion of Indian Classical Music and Culture Amongst Youth (SPIC MACAY) Gurgaon organised a series of concerts at various schools across the city. Renowned artistes participated in those events.

On World Dance Day, SPIC MACAY organised an Odissi performance by Kavita Dwibedi at Shriram Millennium School, Gurgaon. Padama Sri awardee Geeta Chandran performed at Shiv Nadar School. It was attended by the students of DPS International and KR Mangalam School. A lecture demonstration by Hindustani vocal exponent Meeta Pandit was organised at DAV Public School Sector 49 and at Colonel's Central Academy. Pandit was accompanied by India's top tabla player Pandit Ram Kumar Misra and highly accomplished harmonium player Paromita Mukerjee.

At Colonel's Central Academy, the students of DPS Sector 45, Siddheshwar School, Atul Kataria School, Lions Public School and Gyan Devi

Many renowned artistes took part in the events and enlightened students about the rich culture, tradition and heritage of the country

School participated in an event.

At DAV Public School, the students of Red Roses School, Gyan Devi School, SN Siddheshwar Public School, Suncity School Sector 37D, DPS Sector 45, HDFC School and The Heritage School witnessed a recital performance. A shehnai recital by young maestro Pt Sanjeev Shankar, a disciple of Pandit Ravi Shankar and winner of the prestigious Bismillah Khan award, was also presented at VIDYA School.

Another enthralling lecture demonstration by Kathak exponent Vidha Lal was held at Salwan Public School. It was attended by the the students of Gyan Devi Senior Secondary School, CCA School and Amity International School Sec 43. Pandit Ritesh Mishra and Pandit Rajnish Mishra will be performing for students at Lotus Valley International School and Kunsapscolen School later this month.

"Over 4,000 students from 16 different schools were inspired by the lecture demonstrations by renowned exponents who enlightened the students about the rich culture, tradition and heritage of the country," said SPIC MACAY Gurugram chairperson Rupi. The aim of the programme was to enrich the quality of formal education through these art forms.