

DPS, Gurugram, organises virtual investiture ceremony

Delhi Public School (DPS), Sector 45, Gurugram, conducted the virtual investiture ceremony for the vice-student council and later released it on YouTube. The event began with the display of the scroll of the school's vision and motto, encapsulating the spirit of 'services before self'. It was followed by an art exhibition led by the fine arts students of Class 11. In her speech, school director-principal Aditi Misra hailed the post-holders of the vice student council. She expressed her gratitude to the parents for their support. The students presented Samyukti Se Shakti, an amalgamation of Kathak, Odissi and contemporary dances, which emphasized the power of women.

It was followed by a medley titled 'Perna ke Strot' composed and sung by the music secretaries. On that occasion, alumni Aayush Kumar and Poorva Gupta urged the students to be innovative, responsible, and embrace the new normal. The oath-taking ceremony began with senior school headmistress Arpna Gupta investing the house captains. Thereafter dean of student welfare Sapna Dhawan, vice principal Santvna Thadani invested the club secretaries and the cultural secretaries respectively.

Misra invested the co-scholastic secretaries and the vice head student council. The ceremony culminated with cice presidents Jyotika Malhotra and Shrey Kharbanda proposing the vote of thanks.
