

Delhi Public School, Sec 45, Gurgaon hosted the New India Education Summit, Delhi NCR Chapter

Delhi Public School, Sec 45, Gurgaon hosted the New India Education Summit (NIES Edition 2.0, Delhi NCR Chapter). The Summit was organized by ScooNews, a media platform for the education sector. The eminent gathering constituted of Anurag Tripathi, Secretary CBSE; Dr Ameeta Mulla Wattal, Chairperson, DLF Foundation Schools and distinguished Educators and Principals from across the country. The NIES 2.0 is centered around the theme, 'Enabling India's Aspirations with the NCF' and it is focused on discussion, deliberation and action. Principal Director, DPS Gurgaon, Aditi Misra and CEO ScooNews, Ravi Santlani welcomed the guests. Dr. Arunabh Singh, Chief Mentor, Final Chapter NIES and Director, Nehru World School, Ghaziabad invited Lt. Gen. Surendra Kulkarni, Director, Mayo College, Ajmer to share his thoughts. Ratnesh Kumar Jha, CEO India and South Asia, Burlington Group of Companies spoke about the NCF Foundational Stage. He opined that 85% of the impact is made at the foundation stage and therefore each word of the NCF 2022 needs to be pragmatic and effective. Mihir Gupta, Co-founder and CEO, Teach Mint spoke about the role of technology in education. The event was also graced by senior leaders and educators, Sandeep Sethi, Director (Education), MSMSII Museum Trust, Jaipur; Dr. Bharti

Madhok & Deepak Madhok, co-founders of the Sunbeam Group of Educational Institutions (SGEI), Varanasi; Amrita Burman, Dy. Director, SGEI, Varanasi; Madhav Deo Saraswat, principal, The Hyderabad Public School, Begumpet. Thereafter the participants assembled in the breakout rooms with their respective mentors to discuss the National Curriculum Frameworks. The mentors were Anand Krishnaswamy, Innovator, Strategist and Educationist for NCF- ECCE, Dr. Arunabh Singh for NCF-SE and Anju Chazot & Pascal Chazot, Co-founders Mahatma Gandhi International School, Ahmedabad for NCF-TE. The findings of each group were shared with the audience. Misra thanked everyone on behalf of ScooNews and Delhi Public School, Gurgaon. She hoped that there would be positive outcomes after all the pertinent discussions.