Delhi Public School (DPS), Sector 45, Gurugram, conducted the investiture ceremony for the newly appointed members of the student council of Junior School through the virtual platform of YouTube.

The event commenced with the welcome address by Junior School headmistress Laveena Hemrajani, who appreciated all the students for giving their best to prove their mettle.

School director-principal Aditi Misra in her address congratulated the members of the student council and motivated them to embrace their responsibilities with utmost compassion and empathy towards everyone.

Misra urged the badge holders to prepare themselves for this new world where one must put the needs of the society before self and devise ways to bring a change in the world.

The director-principal thanked the parents and the teachers for collaborating beautifully during these tough times with the common motive of nurturing and guiding the students and preparing them for a happier world order. Thereafter the school choir presented a melodious rendition, depicting the importance of water conservation. Then ensued the oath-taking ceremony wherein the parents were requested to administer the oath to the newly appointed council members.

Hemrajani exhorted the council members to dispense their duties with sincerity and to bring pride to everyone by upholding the values that the school stands for.

Young dancers presented a vivacious dance performance which beautifully portrayed how the onus of saving water lies on the shoulders of school's young leaders. The ceremony culminated with a vote of thanks proposed by the head boy and the head girl.

During the event, the student council members were urged to fulfil their responsibilities with compassion
