

REPORT - CLASS X ASSEMBLY
“How Nelson Mandela Continues to inspire the World today”
18 July –Nelson Mandela International Day
18.07.2023

A class assembly on “How Nelson Mandela Continues to inspire the World today” was conducted by senior school students. The assembly began with a serene morning prayer, setting a harmonious tone for the discussion. The students explained the reasons to appreciate the courage and determination to achieve social justice and equality.

Through thought-provoking quotes and messages, the essential qualities of Nelson Mandela were highlighted. Mandela's dedication to the struggle against apartheid intensified over the years. He actively participated in peaceful protests, civil disobedience, and non-violent resistance. They highlighted the role played by him on education, healthcare and well-being of all in the society.

The students concluded the assembly by emphasizing on unity to make a lasting impact on our planet and the lives of those in need, embodying the spirit of Mandela's dedication to justice and compassion.
