

AUTHOR INTERACTION SESSION CLASSES VI AND VII (2025-26)

"To know the future, you must understand the past."

A truly insightful Author Interaction Session unfolded at Delhi Public School, Sector 45, Gurgaon on 3rd May 2025, featuring the distinguished historian, author, and heritage activist Mr. Vikramjit Singh Rooprai. The event aimed to spark students' interest in history and India's rich cultural heritage.

Mr. Rooprai, celebrated for his books like “Delhi Heritage: Top 10 Baolis” and “Delhi Heritage: Top 10 Forts”, engaged the students of classes VI and VII with his profound knowledge and passionate storytelling, vividly illustrating the often-unseen intricacies of Delhi’s architectural marvels, particularly the ingenious stepwells (Baolis).

He shared his inspiring journey from the tech world to heritage promotion, the rigorous research behind his writing, the challenges of heritage conservation, and the vital role the young generation plays in safeguarding history.

Through an interactive discussion, Mr. Rooprai encouraged students and teachers to actively explore historical sites, document their experiences, and raise awareness about local heritage. The session concluded with gratitude for Mr. Rooprai’s dedication to making history accessible and inspiring a deep appreciation for India's past.
