

Book Week Report of Junior School

‘Books have the power to transport us to another world, to make us see things from a different perspective and to ignite our imagination.’

-Dr. Suess

Delhi Public School, Sector 45, Gurgaon observed Book Week from 18th November to 23rd November 2024 to foster a love for reading among students. The event commenced with the inauguration of book fair by the Director Principal, Ms. Aditi Misra, organized by Scholastic India Pvt. Ltd.

An engaging session named ‘Mister Water’ was conducted by Scholastic in the school auditorium for grade IV students. The session aimed to educate the children about interesting facts related to water and how it reacts when mixed with other chemicals. The Students enjoyed the session thoroughly.

As part of the Book Week, the students of classes III, IV and V showcased their creativity through a plethora of activities. Class III designed beautiful crowns with thoughtful quotes on ‘Reading’ while Class IV made innovative bookmarks using eco-friendly materials such as dried leaves, flowers etc. The students of Class V made paper bags using newspaper. The ‘Author Talk’ activity was conducted which gave them the opportunity to share insights about their favourite authors from the Reading programme. As a part of Role play students of all three classes performed interesting role plays based on stories from Panchatantra, Jataka Tales, Treasure Trove, Tana Bana etc. DEAR (Drop Everything and Read) Programme was observed in one of the online classes which aimed to encourage children to read more. This programme urged the students and the teachers to drop their work and read their favourite books.

The Book Week concluded on a happy note, encouraging young readers and also everyone else to widen their horizon of reading and visualize things from a different perspective.
