

REPORT - BOOK WEEK

“Your mind is a Garden and Books are the Seeds, so pick your favourite and Bloom as you Read!”

- Anonymous

Every year Delhi Public School, Gurgaon, organises a ‘Book Week’ to enhance literary skills and foster a love of reading among the students. Following this custom, Book Week was planned for the session 2024-25 from 22nd to 27th April 2024.

A Book Fair by Scholastic India was organised for the whole week. It was inaugurated by Dean Student Welfare, Ms. Sapna Dhawan. Middle school students visited the Book Fair during their allotted slots and purchased the books of their interest.

A special assembly on ‘World Book Day and Mass Media’ was organised during the enrichment slot in middle school.

Various activities were conducted during the Book Week to enhance the reading and creative skills of the students. The theme of the activity was 'Mass Media'. The activities implemented during Book Week were meticulously designed to not only foster a love for reading but also to cultivate the creative faculties of the students. Each activity was connected to different subjects, ensuring a holistic and interdisciplinary approach. Aligning our activities with the National Education Policy (NEP 2020) reflected our commitment to create an educational framework that is both interesting and in line with modern pedagogical standard.

An activity for the students of class VI was to Design a Cover page for the "Puppetry" Skill Manual. Students learnt the value of group setting, sharing ideas and contributing to the collective design process.

The students of Class VII created - "The Seventh Grade Gazette: Exploring Our School" Students learnt to apply their understanding of media literacy by creating their own newspaper, showcasing their research, writing, and critical thinking skills.

The students of class VIII designed "Graphic Magazine". Through their graphic magazine stories, students raised awareness about environmental issues and inspired others to take action for a more sustainable future.

DEAR, Drop Everything And Read, was observed in the Middle school to encourage the habit of reading, wherein the entire classes were asked to put aside everything and read books of their choice. The entire school including students, teachers, the leadership team and admin staff participated enthusiastically and read in the allotted time.

It was a week full of fun and learning in which the students displayed their linguistic and creative skills.