

CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

REPORT

‘Christmas is not a time nor a season, but a state of mind. To cherish peace and goodwill, to be plenteous in mercy, is to have the real spirit of Christmas’.

— Calvin Coolidge

The children of Jhelum House of the Junior School presented a special assembly on 18th December 2024. The assembly commenced with the Christmas carols sung melodiously by the school choir, getting everyone in the spirit of festive joy and merriment of Christmas. The auditorium was filled with the reverberation of sweet Christmas carols.

The assembly commenced with a thought followed by the news. The students presented a skit on how the festival is celebrated highlighting the message of peace, togetherness, sharing and giving. The skit embodied the essence of ‘The Joy of Giving’.

The assembly came to a close with the Dean Communication and Publication, Ms. Laveena Hemrajani reaffirming the importance of the Christmas and emphasizing the values of generosity, compassion and unity. She encouraged students to embrace the true spirit of Christmas in their lives and spread kindness wherever they go. She also commended the students' efforts for the assembly and extended her wishes for a Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

The Christmas assembly was a wonderful celebration of the year, bringing everyone together in the spirit of joy and giving. The performances, thoughtful reflections, and festive atmosphere made it a memorable occasion, leaving everyone in high spirits as they look forward to the holiday season.
