The Junior Wing of Delhi Public School, Gurgaon conducted a session, 'Of the Parents, By the Parents, For the Parents' on Tuesday, 14th February 2023.

The session was conducted for the parent fraternity, to cascade the various points on the holistic development of children, discussed during the meeting with Ms. Aditi Misra, Director Principal on 9th December 2022.

The parent volunteers shared their insights and experiences with their peer parent group which was instrumental in making the session effective.

Revisiting guidelines on topics that ranged from general school policies, social media, use of technology, connecting with our children, taking leaves judiciously, struck a chord with all parents. The parents unanimously concurred that a harmonious partnership between parent community and the school will be beneficial for the children.

The session, an initiative undertaken by the school was appreciated by all parents present. The session helped to strengthen the bond between the school and parents.
