

GPSC E-COMM PARV 2022

“There is no limitation to what you can accomplish, except the limits you place on your thinking”.

Kaizen, the Commerce and Economics Club of Delhi Public School, Sector-45, Gurgaon, hosted ‘GPSC E-Comm Parv 2022’, an Annual Inter-School Commerce and Economics Festival, on Friday, 30th September 2022. Twenty-six schools across the NCR region enthusiastically participated in the event that had many learning and engaging activities for the students.

The opening ceremony commenced with a warm welcome to the Quiz master, Mr Arindam Bhattacharya and the panel of judges. The Director Principal, Ms Aditi Misra, welcomed the judges and the participating schools. She appreciated such platforms where the youth can display their managerial and leadership skills. She reminisced that the Kaizen Club is the oldest club of the school.

The Fest constituted of interesting online and offline competitions like The Mind Sport- BIZ TECH Quiz, Treasure Trove- Treasure Hunt, Strokespeak - Poster Making, Eco-o-comic- Comic Strip and Tech-Preneur- Website Creation witnessing an abundance of creativity and invention. The judges lauded the efforts of the participants and appreciated their talent.

The valedictory ceremony commenced with a mesmerizing fusion dance performance depicting the evolution of money followed by a street play which showcased the importance of financial literacy. The Rolling Trophy was awarded to D.A.V Sector 14, Gurgaon. The Director Principal congratulated the winners on their accomplishments.

The event culminated with the vote of thanks proposed by the club President and Secretary who thanked the judges, participating schools, teachers and students without whose support and dedication the Fest would not have been possible.

