

INTACH ACTIVITY – JULY MIDDLE SCHOOL (2024-25)

The INTACH school group organised an engaging activity on 16th July'2024 for class 6, and on 18th July'2024 for classes 7 and 8 respectively, centered around the theme “Coconut Confluence- Rituals, Recipes and Legends”. The activity aimed to foster an appreciation for the cultural significance of coconuts in Indian traditions. Each student chose from one of the following topics: the use of coconut in Indian rituals and traditions, traditional recipes featuring coconut as a key ingredient, or folklore related to coconuts. Students composed insightful write-ups and illustrated their narratives with captivating sketches, showcasing the multifaceted significance of coconuts in Indian culture.

The activity not only enhanced students understanding of their cultural roots but also fostered creativity and nurtured critical thinking skills. It provided an active platform for learning and exploring the rich cultural and traditional values associated with versatile coconuts.
