

REPORT ON INTERHOUSE MUSIC FESTIVAL 2024-25

‘Music is the universal language of mankind.’

An Inter-House Music Festival was held on 7th May, 2024 at Delhi Public School, Gurgaon, for the students of classes IX and X. The participants performed with zealous fervour and the audience was left spellbound by the phenomenal performances of the students. The six houses presented their awe-inspiring songs on the theme, ‘Folk Songs of India’.

The cultural diversity and rich traditional kaleidoscope of the Indian society is truly reflected through the variety of Indian Folk songs. True to the theme, the vivacious singers set the stage on fire reflecting their passion and hard work. Chenab House’s performance represented the coastal paradise of Goa while Ganges House presented the captivating rhythms of Chattisgarh. Jamuna House transcended us to the hills of Himachal Pradesh while Jhelum House explored the culture of Manipur. Similarly, Ravi House made the audience groove to Rajasthani beats and Satluj House enthralled the audience with the rich folk music of West Bengal. The fest turned into a jubilant celebration of rhythm and rhapsody that stands testimony to the rich cultural heritage of our country.

The event was witnessed by Head Mistress, Senior School, Ms. Nishi Dhanjal along with the esteemed alumni of the school, Ms. Mahi Prasad and Ms. Swastika Thakur who served as judges for the performances. They graced the occasion with their presence and inspired the participants to explore the long trail of a career in music, further wishing them exponential growth. The vote of thanks was proposed by the hosts who expressed gratitude towards the dignitaries, teachers, house wardens, participants and audience for their contributions. Overall, the event rekindled the diverse cultural pride in each one’s heart. Their collaborative efforts and presentations were duly appreciated by one and all.
